

An Uncial Garden with Lorraine Douglas

Date: Four Wednesday mornings
starting on April 1, 2020

Time: 9 am-12pm

Location: McTavish Academy of Art,
1720 McTavish Road

Registration opens February 1, 2020

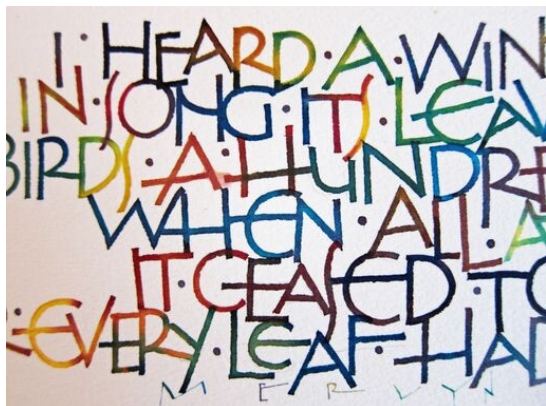

This four week class will introduce the basic form and style of the Uncial hand...but then move into a whole range of possibilities with colour and tools. You will learn how to slant the letters into a running style; change the weight and height of the letters and how you can use different tools to create monoline Uncials. It is a great hand for beginners as there is just one set of letters to learn but it offers opportunities to "grow a garden" of variations.

Suitable for beginners and more advanced calligraphers.

Supplies for first class:

- Speedball C2 edged nib in a pen holder
- Ink – eg. black Higgins Eternal
- 12 inch ruler, pencil, eraser
- Masking tape to tape your ink to the table
- Paper towels or nib wiping rag
- Small container for water

We will have paper at the class available for sale or you can bring Bienfang Marker paper. There are right handed and left handed nibs. Make sure you are buying the right nib. Opus and Island Blue have Speedballs. You get a 10% discount at Island Blue if you tell them you are a member of Fairbank Calligraphy Society.
